

ARAM QASIM MOHAMMED AMIN

Associated Partner

I. Master Degree, in urban planning in University of Kurdistan in Iran in 2023
II. Owner of Royal Design Engineering Consultant Bureau, in Sulaymaniyah in 2007 till present.

CONTACTS

PHONE: (+964) 770 152 2559

EMAIL:

consultanyroyaldesign@gmail.com

Professional Experiences

As an additional of his bright and talented experience and work academic. He was purposeful and eloquent person. Someone who is passionate about customer demand, detailed knowledge of city design and execution, and experience working with European planning and the development of rules and procedures of practice with a strong analytical experience, attention to detail and business acumen. Good experience of the CAD, and fully versed in 3D and 2D Arcade software. Urban and Regional Planning - KU Leuven in (2001-2006):

The Urban Planning and Urban Planning Architecture Engineer of Bing Hons Region included the following modules: Environmental fluids and geomechanics, the engineering analysis, process and design processes, structural analysis, professional engineering skills, and techniques to improve the process. His tasks were taking full advantage of the design and accomplish the most suitable design for the construction team, coordinate with customers and surveyors and adapt to meet their demands, identify and implement solutions to environmental concerns, analyze, update, and work with budgets and time frames. He provided engineering photography at major corporate events, and providing support for all technical issues.

Educational Background

Aram Qasim is an ambitious and ambitious person with 10 years of experience in urban and regional planning with a degree in the same field and the field of architectural engineering. He has a bachelor degree in urban planning in Catholic Leuven University in the city of Leuven in Belgium in 2006. He also got a master degree in urban planning in University of Kurdistan in Iran in 2023. Previous experience in project development and extensive experience in system design and development. He has a very good track record of managing and completing a number of projects within the specified timeframe. Experienced in grand planning and a deep understanding of working within budget, the overall professionalism and structure of the architectural engineering structure.

Career to date

His professional trajectory is indicative of a consistent transition from academic involvement to leadership in the fields of urban planning research and practice. He started his academic career in 2007 by designing and supervising of the Mona Lisa Hall from May 2007 to September 2007, and Workplace Manager of the New York Times from September 2007 till June 2008, he was responsible for the planning and execution of a multi-product project within a tight financial framework. He also worked for The Vanguard Company on July 2008 to November 2008, his mission was as a workplace planning Engineer and English interpreter. Then, he became a director of the New York Group Office of Architectural Engineers and Millennium Consulting Office for Architectural Engineering from June 2008 till now. Fortunately, he is now also a managing director of the Iraqi Federation of Refugees from October 2008 until now and he is responsible for collecting and obtaining data and organizing it in the required manner.